NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

TO MOTHERS.

In a country where the rearing of infants is attended with somewhat exceptional difficulties and risk owing partly to climatic reasons, and partly to the difficulty of getting medical assistance in the 'camp,' an apology is hardly needed for publishing a small hand-book on the subject for the use of mothers. In Dr. Pennel's book on Infant Feeding an attempt has been made to explain in simple terms the reasons on which the various rules and recommendations are based, in order that a mother in modifying her child's diet from time to time as required, may be guided by common sense and not by the hundred and one conflicting counsels, with which she will be assailed. On sale at all bookstalls and libraries.

Telegrams

(Per Havas Agency.)

United Kingdom

Deptford, 14th—The cattle market continues down, 777 Argentine novillos were sold to-day at 34 and 36 pence per 8 pounds, also 4300 sheep at 40 to 42 pence.

During the course of a speech Mr. Chamberlaim stated that Great Britain was determined to protect the outlanders in the Transvaal. England has no warlike intentions, said Mr. Chamberlain, but she will compel foreign Powers to respect her interests, no matter in what part of the globe.

Telegrams from Tokio say that, in spite of the severe measures adopted, the rebellion is increasing in all the northern parts of the Island of Formosa. Troops have been sent from Tamsui to stamp it out.

The Princess Beatrice arrived to-day at Nice where she will probably be joined by the Queen about the middle of March.

The Princess is much broken-down by the sad loss of her husband Prince Henry of Battenburg.

France

Paris, 14th—Telegrams from Calais state that Arton has arrived at that part under the safe custody of two English detectives. He has already been handed over to the French authorities.

The ex-Prime Minister of the Hova Government is to be exiled to Algeria.

Germany

Berlin, 14th—An international Congress of Women will be held here in September next. Fair delegates from England, France, Austria, Holland, Belgium and other countries are expected to attend.

Foreign Minister Marshal von Bibersteín has pledged himself in the Reichstag to defend the interests of the German creditors of the Greek Government.

Austria

Vienna, 14th—Prince Hohenlohe Schillingsfürst, General in the Austrian army, died to-day at the age of 77 years.

It is believed that Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria will very shortly be officially recognized by all the Powers who signed the treaty of Berlin.

Italy

Rome, 14th—Severe criticisms are being passed on the summoning of Parliament and the attitude assumed by the Minister Signor Saracco, whom several official organs attack violently.

A telegram received this evening from Entiscio announces that General Baratieri's forces occupied to-day the heights of Tozola whence the Italian outposts can descry the Abyssinian encampment lying about 5 miles distant.

General Weyler the new military Governor of Cuba has ordered all the countryfolk throughout the island to fix their residence in the towns and villages nearest to their work. This measure is intended to prevent them from acting as spies in favour of the rebels.

Hungary

Budapesth, 14th—The Government has just granted large sums to replace the vines destroyed last year by the philoxera in several parts of Hungary.

Turkey

Constantinople, 14th—The papers applaud the recent series of measures taken by the Finance Minister to improve the financial position of the Ottoman empire.

Bulgaria

Sofia, 14th—Prince Boris was to-day received into the "Orthodox" Church. The ceremony was attended by his father and all the principal persons about the Court.

General Golnitchef who stood sponsor by proxy for the Russian Emperor was frantically cheered by the populace as he left the Cathedral. Great rejoicings are to to take place to-night in honour of the event.

The Russian diplomatist Tcharyskow has assumed here the definite character of resident Minister.

Russia

St. Petersburg, 14th—The Czar intends to go to Findland next month to hunt there for some weeks. Many of the high personages of the Court will accompany His Majesty.

Spain

Madrid, 14th—A telegram has been received from General Weyler announcing that the Spanish troops under General Cornell defeated Antonio Maceo's forces at Pinar del Rio this morning. The losses on both sides were insignificant. General Cornell was slightly wounded.

Brazil.

Rio Janeiro, 14th.—Two officers, besides a greater part of the crew of the Italian steamer Lombardia, are down with yellow fever. The authorities have sent two doctors and several assistants to attend to the sick men.

Chile

Santiago, 14th—A newspaper reporter held an interview this morning with a prominent politician who declared that the arrangements made with regard to the Boundary Question promise very little indeed. The Chilian Government is inclined to pursue an open and perfectly frank policy, and Chile can no longer continue the present system of spending millions of pounds sterling in armaments—she is being ruined, while her rival threatens to go on for goodness only knows how long. The real stumbling block in tracing out the boundary line exists in the South, there being no difficulties whatever in the North.

The influential politician declared that the only way out of the difficulty is for both countries to disarm—Argentine promising not to meddle in the Pacific, Chile likewise to refrain from putting her finger in affairs on the Atlantic Coast. The present system of protocols is only a rotten way of patching up the matter and only contributes to delay the question and create further difficulties. The Chilian Government is alarmed at Argentina's formidable navy.

President Montt leaves for Talcahuano on the 19th to inaugurate the dry dock there.

Congress will be convoked for next April.

Exchange on London is quoted at 17 ⅛.

The Heraldo states that the money spent in armaments will raise the Expenses this year to $100,000,000.

Argentine Republic

Rosario, 14th—The attempt to put the Prensa on its legs again has completely failed. All the papers censure Commander Barilari for returning with the fleet, whilst they praise Minister Villanueva for his conduct in the matter.

WHEAT PROSPECTS.

To judge by the general tenor of advices from the rural districts, of reports in the newspapers, and gossip in the market at large, there is a tendency to underrate the Argentine wheat crop and stimulate a rise in prices. We have read on repeated occasions that this crop will fall short of the last one; some authorities announce an all round loss of 30%, and in one instance we have seen 50% of the Santa Fé wheat yield wiped out with a stroke of the pen.

For the last two months we have been endeavoring to find out the merits of these constant reports and only the other day we removed a deal of the glamour hanging round them by publishing the figures and the remarks with which we were favored by the managers of the several railways that run through the grain districts. It might be argued that those figures are not complete, since they do not include Entre Rios nor the figures of the Santa Fé Provincial railways; meantime, they are approximative enough to form an opinion as to the prospects of the yield of the present harvest, the subject of so much controversy.

Summing up the interesting figures which we published last week we see that the railway companies at foot transported during 1895 the following quantities of cereals:—

Railway.	Wheat.	Maize.	Linseed
	Tons.	Tons.	Tons.
Cent. Arg.	383,800	303,000	58,500
Great Southern	136,000	107,000	—
B. A. Rosario	180,500	57,000	62,000
Western	230,000	437,000	—
Sta. Fé S. Cordoba	78,500	41,000	20,000
Cord. & Rosario	121,000	—	—
Pacific	49,500	108,000	3,000
Oeste Sta. Fé	157,500	8,000	2,000
	1,331,000	1,061,500	145,500

It is well to bear in mind that the managers of the above railways, who have the benefit of information from all the stations on their lines and know the agricultural situation better than any other authorities, point to increase this year in some instances, but not one foreshadows any decrease. In other words the present wheat crop will certainly be as large as the last one, and much better in quality in the province of Buenos Aires. That a large fraction of the crop has been lost in the centre of Santa Fé, through inclement weather, is no doubt true, but that loss is counterbalanced by the excellent yield in the South, and we may safely argue that the wheat export of 1896 will be quite as large as that of 1895: we may add that the quality of the grain is superior and that the value of same ought to be much greater. The situation of the market is very favorable to the farmer. This time last year, with gold at 250% premium and a rising tendency, wheat for export was quoted at $6 ⅝ per 100 kilos in this market. To-day with gold over 35 points lower and a falling tendency, we see wheat selling in the Once at $8 and higher per 100 kilos: there is a gain of 10% in the currency and of 30% in the price. The situation could not be more satisfactory when compared with 1895.

MAR DEL PLATA.

The crowd down here is now so great that the Municipality of the town ought to pass a law prohibiting the overcrowding of rooms, pretty much in the same style as the Municipality of Buenos Aires prohibiting the overcrowding of the tramways. No more than five visitors allowed to a room, sleeping on dining and billiard tables strictly prohibited, temporary shake downs such as catres, sofas, trunks put one up against the other, and all that sort of thing in the halls and patios of the hotel proscribed, and fine and imprisonment against the owners of the restaurants, cafées and bathing boxes who turn their establishments into dormitories. The proper step, however, for the Mar del Plata Municipality to adopt is to fine Mr. Barrow and his railway for bringing down more people than the place can hold. Just imagine; a long train of 20 large sleeping cars packed as full as they could hold with the aristocracy of Buenos Aires, over 200 men, women, children and nurses all told, arrived this morning, and not a room in the whole town for love or money to be had! We suggested to our host, Mr. George Mercer, that he should send up to town for tents or down to Bahia Blanca for recados, either that or turn the grand saloon of the Bristol into one vast dormitory for ladies. Last night a very heavy train went up to Buenos Aires packed to overflowing; we have all their names down on our list, yet they never will be missed; and the dining hall of the Bristol, the grandest and largest in this Republic, is as crowded as ever, every table full, and the numerous grass widows are annexed to friends' tables during their husbands' absence; and the crush in Mar del Plata is such that it is not restricted to the Hotel; you find it in the bathing boxes and even in the very waves that beat upon the shore, bathing dresses have run short, and an English gentleman was called out of the briny deep by one of the new policemen to give up his bathing attire, which was claimed by another.

The first man we met on the Rambla this morning was our old friend Don Ernesto Tornquist, who looks completely rejuvenated since his trip to Europe; he has a beautiful Chalet of his own down here, but he comes to the Bristol to have a chat. He assured us that it was all bosh about his smoking a cigar on the top of the great pyramid: he went into the pyramid but did not go up it, like our friend Don A. Lumb, and he cautions all his friends against the adventure, which he says is worse than our trip with Don Domingo Chichero to the top of Vesuvius.

Last night all Mar del Plata was fairly turned inside out by a telegram received from Chili and Buenos Aires by Dr. Canale, announcing the glorious news that peace had been signed with Chili. One would really have supposed that war had been actually going on between the two countries, such was the demonstration of joy on the terrace of the Bristol. When the news arrived it was about 10 o'clock p. m. and many were still at dinner, the grand saloon was just lighted up, ladies were entering, and dancing about to begin. When the glorious news spread through the fashionable and jewelled crowd the orchestra struck up "Old Mortales:" the ladies joined hands and danced a Pas de Quatre amongst themselves round and round the room; whilst at the Grand Hotel there was double excitement owing to that very night the English residents of that hotel having given a splendid ball to their Argentine freinds. The ball was opened by Mr. Still and the charming Miss Beatrice Thurburn, and in a full whirl waltzing round the beautiful saloon at the Grand Hotel the crowd was so great that it was like at the Cinderellas: there was hardly room to move, whilst outside in the patios people danced among the flowers. Joy beamed in every face. Mr. John Murphy, the veteran estanciero, sat at the head of the room and was so delighted at the news that we thought he was going to dance a Pas de Quatre. Even at the roulette tables there was increased excitement: mark 35 for peace, and every one who stakes on that number wins 35 times over. We walked the terrace with Mr. Lezica, Mr. Gandra, Mr. Thurburn, Mr. Cobo and "quien sabe" how many others, discussing the news till midnight.

But I forgot to send you an account of the beautiful afternoon tea pic-nic at the grotto. We all sat on the rocks; the tide was coming in fast, and the roar of the waves as they broke on these hugh boulders and shot up the foam glistening in the rays of a gorgeous setting sun, added beauty to the picture and enchantment to the scene. Many of the party had never visited the cave before and were astonished at the hugh greatness of the massive rocks. On every rock projecting from the cliff are inscribed the names of visitors, a sort of vainglorious custom by no means limited to Mar del Plata. We remember at Poulaphuca in Ireland and at Glendalough seeing just as many names. The old rocking stone at Tandil is a sort of Kidd's Guia. Facing the entrance of the cave is cut on the living rock the following inscription:—

Gruta Andres Egaña
Descubierto por el mismo
Año 1884.

and on another massive rock in tablet form:

Mar del Plata
Fué fundado por
Patricio Peralta Ramos
Año 1874
Nacido en Kilkenny, Irlanda, 1824.

Around the rock are beautifully cut the names of hundreds of our subscribers. Mr. Edward Healy, the Bolsa King, with the names of all his children is cut on the stone, which stood as it stands to-day when Thales, Solon, Pythagoras and Plato were going to school at Heliopolis. "How old are these rocks?" asked an English lady, as she tapped the monolith with her sun shade. 'Madame' replied Dr. Canale, 'that rock upon which Mr. Healy and his children's names are cut was precisely in the same position when Moses was picked up from the bullrushes and Alexander shot marbles with Aristotle in the streets of Stagyra. Pick but the smallest grain of sand at your feet, Madame, replied the Argentine Stagirist, fling it into the waves beating upon that rock upon which you sit, that infinitetesimal particle of sand is as man compared with nature. Go into that cave Madame and call out its Genius and ask him to answer your question. As old as those rocks around you is the spirit of that cave.' A young English lady skipped from rock to rock jotting down the names. It reminded us of visiting an old cemetery where people took down the names on the various tombstones. These rocks are also pic-nic tombstones of vanished hours of love, and joy and amusement: Juana Baudrix, Julia Carril de Viale. Lola Urquiza de Saenz Valiente, Margaret B. de Norton, Beatrice Thurburn, M. A. Kehoe, J. Anchorena, Guillermo Cranwell, D. R. de Achaval, John Murphy, M. G. M., P. Pardo and five hundred others: but the waves are fast obliterating the names and another year and they will be all wiped out.

Yours
Syntax.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

A LOOK AROUND.

(From our own Correspondent)

January 18th.

The Speaker is an excellent paper, and moderate in its views. A Home Ruler without rowdyism, an advanced Liberal without fads. Its modernised Gladstonism infects it with a desire to support Lord Rosebery. It is Scotch without narrow and supersensitive clannishness. In a mild way it condemns Lord Salisbury's foreign policy, and rates Mr. Balfour for his ignorance even of the history of the Munroe doctrine. It represents a Liberalism which is jealously regardful of the greatness of the United Kingdom, but distrustful of an "Imperialism" which bears a trace of vulgar chauvinism. It may be believed to be honest when it condemns Lord Salisbury's truckling, firstly to Germany in the surrender of Heligoland and subsequently to France, in Tunis, Madagascar and now in Siam, when our prime minister poses at home as an uncompromising upholder of British rights and traditions, and of the expansion of the Empire. The Speaker thinks that the German Emperor hailed the advent of Lord Salisbury to power as the certain forerunner of the adhesion of this country to the Triple Alliance. There were many politicians here who held the same views. The anger of the German Emperor at his disappointment has been disclosed in his late message to President Krüger. Now what does all this mean? It means what we all knew, that, granted Lord Salisbury is not as leonine a statesman as he is represented by the slifter among his supporters, he has not even the power to carry out his private views in a cabinet hopelessly divided, and which contains him and the Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain. This gentleman as he walks to the council chamber has to uncover to acknowledge the cries of "bravo!" uttered by men in the street. He has the of late years unprecedented honour in London of receiving the ovations of the public when seated with his family in his "loge" at the theatre. He is called the "hero of the hour." The Prince of Wales spends a long hour with him at the Colonial office. The Queen sends for him to Osborne. The Speaker says all these honours have been "cheaply purchased." That is to say, Mr. Chamberlain has done nothing more than any man of business would have done under similar circumstances; and "qua" man of business, there is no knowing what he may not do when the question is the commercial interests of the Chartered Com any and not the mere setting aside of Foreign Office and departamentos traditions. The Speaker does not say this; but the real truth is, when the affairs of nations are transacted by Imperial and Presidential messages, and not by the old plodding of diplomacy and the dilletante indifference of a bygone school of politicians, who is the man, in or out of the Cabinet, who is able to take a bird's eye view of the world as it exists and of its rapid changes, and is prepared to cleanse and reform our policy and traditions and not merely govern by bayonets and swagger with flying squadrons? Some say Chamberlain is that man. As one looks at the splendid portraits of him in the illustrated papers and at the orchid in his button hole, and at his physiognomical and phrenological traits, one doubts it. And yet at this moment Mr. Gould's caricature in the Westminster, representing Ridley, Balfour and Halsbury like frightened schoolboys, coming to the Cabinet Council and being told by the Colonial Minister that "I and Lord Salisbury have settled everything," fairly represents the situation.

The difficulties of the Cabinet will commence when Mr. Rhodes arrives and when President Kruger, who has settled the Jameson business by handing over the prisoners to be tried by their own Government, puts forward his claim in March next, when it looks as if the Transvaal Republic will demand to be released from the suzeranity of Britain. The convention of 1884 was Mr. Chamberlain's Schomburk line, from which he may have to recede owing to the military defeat and administrative blunders of the Chartered Company. The company, if its charter is not revoked, will certainly have to surrender its police and military power into the hands of the Imperial Government and will have to reform its own mining laws. Otherwise there is no reason to fear that the Chartered Company's affairs, representing nominally £11,000,000, will eventually suffer from recent events if its financial condition is sound at this moment.

In the United States the syndicates have finally given up the loan, which the President has offered to the public, that is to the democracy and small investors, and as far as we know with success. But the opinion here is that no loan will be effective in restraining export of gold so long as greenbacks are reissued as fast as they are cashed. In spite of Wall street rumours of British squadrons coming to Halifax and U. States ships being ordered South, and of offers to the Cuban insurgents of pecuniary assistance in buying out the Spaniards and rumoured intentions to recognise them as belligerants, financial and commercial affairs in the States are fairly quiet.

The government has, through Mr. Bayard, thanked the British Cabinet for its protection of American citizens in the Transvaal, and general friendliness between the two countries exists. This is at any moment liable to be disturbed by the march of British Colonial troops to the Venezuelan frontier, by any such outlandish improvement of the Monroe doctrine as is now taking the name of "Hemispheric Sovereignty" in Washington, which would amount to a United States Protectorate of all South American Republics. Surely this would not suit some of them, and cannot, until we hear more about it be seriously considered. In fact this "going one better in Clevelandism than Cleveland" will scarcely be approved by the President. The clause, which is still only talk in the Senate—in virtue of which the protectorate is supposed to be claimed is this—"The American Government will be the sole arbiter in cases where it thinks the Monroe doctrine has been violated.,,

SPORT IN PARAGUAY.

It is curious that so few English sportsmen find their way to Paraguay, considering the facilities for travel and the class of sport to be obtained. The scenery, too, is well worth seeing. Particularly on the rivers, where the graceful palms, the feathery bamboo and drooping willow, casting their reflections into silvery lagoons, all blend in exquisite harmony, to charm the eye. The only thing to disturb our philosophical contemplation of all this beauty is the busy hum and equally energetic action of the ubiquitous mosquito, who during the summer months resents in a very practical way the presence of any sacrilegious intruder in his domains. In the higher grounds in the interior this pest is not so troublesome.

During the month of September, 1895, the writer had a week's shooting in the country north of the New Australia colony which will give an idea of the sport to be had, although the shooting was only incidental, a search for stray cattle being the primary object of our expedition. My companions were W. Thomas, W. Gorman and young Perez Pogson. the boy, who looked after the pack-horse with our provisions, etc. Starting from Las Ovejas settlement our course lay almost due North past the old estancia. The Estancia Guazu has a romantic and melancholy history. The former owner, Varella, was a man of great wealth and influence. In the days of the tyrant Lopez, this was enough to ensure his fate.

So he was accused of conspiracy with a view to obtaining the presidency for himself and barbarously murdered without any trial. His treasure, however, was securely hidden away, presumably buried in the ground, and has to this day resisted every effort to discover it. Occasionally people who have a belief in the inspiration of dreams, put their faith to the test, and disfigured the face of nature by rooting up the soil in one place or another. But evidently dreams in Paraguay are not to be relied on, for so far the treasure has yet to be unearthed. On our way we passed the site of Varella's old house. All that remains now is a few wooden posts and the orange grove, which has been surrounded by other quick growing forest trees, and the whole after the lapse of thirty odd years forms a little "monte." We halted here to refresh the inner man and lay in a stock of golden oranges, for our way now led away into primeval solitudes. As we rode along the rich, glowing colours of the tropics were bathed in sunshine. Many coloured butter-flies flitted lazily from flower to flower. Gay plumaged birds, from the gorgeous macaw to the tiny humming bird, chirruped gaily as they fluttered from tree to tree. The sharp, mechanical tapping of the red-crested wood-pecker as he searched for his prey, could be heard in the forest. The clear, ringing, metallic piping of the cicada resounded through the woods. From the top of a small ridge near Varella's old house, a scene of singular beauty presented itself. The sluggish serpentine course of the Leiva Arroyo, winding in and out between the montes. The clumps of wood dotting the soft undulating landscape, for all the world like little islands in a sea of verdure, giving the impression of a world in the second stage after the deluge. This alternation of 'monte' and 'campo' is one of the charming characteristics of Paraguay; crossing the Arroyo, we skirted the Laguna Negra and passing through an old picada, arrived at the borders of the Laguna Grande; we then traversed a narrow belt of camps between the lagoon and the Great Monte. In an attempt to find a pass leading to the East, we were foiled. We here got a sight of some animal amongst the long grass in front. Dismounting, I carefully stalked him until within range. It proved to be a huge red wolf, hunting rats upon his own account. It was a most interesting sight, as wholly unconscious of my presence, he took long bounds in pursuit of the little rodents. He seemed to be enjoying the sport thoroughly and yelped with excitement. Every line of his body was a picture of grace. The long, black, mane, standing erect, had a very fine effect and gave him rather a majestic appearance. While I was watching these manœuvres he caught a rat and lay down to devour it at his leisure. I could just see the white tip of his tail wagging with apparent satisfaction above the long grass.

When he got up he must have winded me, for he made off; at the crack of the rifle he rolled over, snapping and growling fearfully. The quick shot was rather low and almost cut off one of the fore-legs, just beneath the body. When he saw me coming he scampered off on three legs as fast as possible. A running shot missed, but the next turned him over. The red wolf of Paraguay is rather a fine looking animal. That night from our camp we heard a jaguar roaring near by, but did not get a sight of him. The next day we proceeded to the North end of the lagoon. Finding a suitable spot we decided to camp. Just as we had tethered out our horses, we observed two peccaries crossing the camps towards the lagoon. After a short stalk I managed to bag the two in succession with a quick right and left. The following morning a fine red deer passed along the coast of the lagoon in front of us, travelling Northwards. By a sharp run, taking advantage of the undulating ground I succeeded in heading him off. But instead of keeping on his way he seemed to have observed the horses, and curiosity led him towards the camp. I took rather a long shot, but probably the run had shaken my nerves, for the result was a clean miss. The second barrel was more successful, as the foreleg was broken just at the shoulder. He then made off on three legs and W. Thomas galloped after him to head him off. He only went a short distance, and then stopped and faced me. Another shot bagged him. That night we had a veritable hunters' camp. Loins of venison and legs of pork were roasting all around the fire. There are five varieties of deer in Paraguay, three of which keep to the woods, and two frequent the open camps. The following day I got a glimpse of one of the red "monte" deer, and a quick shot sent a bullet through his heart. I also shot an ant-bear on this occasion. There were many signs of tapir about, but as all the game obtained was in the way of casual shots, we had no time to penetrate their haunts in the dense "montes." On our return journey we managed to take a shorter route by riding through a tropical forest for about a league—no easy matter on horseback at any time.

NEW AUSTRALIA.

A COSTLY EXPERIMENT IN SOCIALISM.

PERSONAL EXPERIENCES.

"Mateship," "Comradeship," "Brotherhood," and "Fraternity" are the fine names that induced some two or three hundred families to transport themselves to a neighbouring republic, with the full belief that they were going to free themselves from the vile social conditions existing at the present time in all civilised countries, and establish for themselves a noble, a higher, and a happier way of living. The men and women who thus broke up their homes, and in the fulness of the faith which animated them, gave up the whole of their substance to the leaders they had such trust in, were moved with the best of motives, and the noblest of aspirations. Their great aim and desire was to free themselves and their children from want and the fear of want, and the drunkenness and crime and host of evils that are caused by poverty; and their motives and aspirations were the nobler because, it was not only themselves they were thinking of, and had risked their all, for, but the whole human race, or the civilised portion of it at any rate, for they firmly believed they were about to realise their aspirations, and, in addition to working out their own salvation, they believed they were about to show the world at large a living example of how want and crime and poverty and misery might be eradicated from amongst us. This Nueva Australia Association, which is the thing I am referring to, has, instead of advancing the solution of the social problem, retarded it, for so far it has turned out a very sad failure indeed, and has become a weapon in the hands of the opponents of social reform to fight reformers with, and is held up as a sad example of the impotency of man to free himself from the industrial slavery that environs him. But the writer, who has had three months' experience in the settlement, working with the members and subsisting on their maize and treacle diet, is in a position to say that it is not the aspirations of the members that were wrong, or unattainable (as the enemies of reform would make believe), but that it was the fact of them setting up for themselves false conditions, that made these aspirations impossible of attainment. They were not satisfied with freeing themselves from the evil of land monopoly, profit-mongering in land, landlordism, and usury, and the host of evils that flow from these things, but attacked these secondary evils (effects and not causes) also, and hence they, at the bidding of their leaders, made paupers of themselves at the outset, to establish equality and set up for themselves the share and share alike system, to maintain this false kind of equality which the pauperization of its members had established. They have, in fact, "nationalised the means of production and distribution," and the fruits of each one's labour is pooled, and is held by the paternal government they have established, consisting of a president and board of management. In the "distribution" hereof comes in the "share and share alike business," and (as may be readily imagined) herein lies a good deal of the troubles that have beset this community from the outset, for in addition to the suspicion of injustice in the distribution, actual and wilful injustice is constantly apparent. Some get boats and others can't get them at all. Some can get horses to ride whenever they want them, and others get them not at all. In the division of clothing the same thing occurs, and there are constant complaints and grumblings at these real injustices, besides the many fancied ones. The single men grumble at having to keep other men's, wives and children. Some of the women won't wash and mend for the single men, and the women who will and do growl (and not without cause) at having to do more than their share, and strikes occur, and the single men are from time to time left in the lurch when they in retaliation take a day for washing and a day per week for mending from the time they should render to the paternal government. And some are caught making things and doing things for themselves and their household, in government time, for every one is a kind of private detective over everyone else, and almost every one is calling almost everyone else a leafer, and the women say their husbands kept them in old Australia and they shall keep them in New Australia, and the children tell their parents they don't belong to them, they belong to the community, for they are not by any means slow in taking advantage of what the contitution says about the state taking charge of the children, and the married men leave the settlement, as they are forced to do, to earn something to buy clothes to hide their nakedness, and then they are continually charged with taking advantage of the constitution which recognises a man's wife as a member as much as he himself; and so the list of causes might be gone on with without end, these causes are so numerous and so fruitful of growling and squabbling and discontent, which can be seen continually from one end of the settlement to the other. And all this misery and discontent is caused by the rope of socialism they have tied themself together with, which restricts their movement and their liberty and freedom, and paralyzes their labor, and yet in spite of it being so plain that this is really what is the matter there are those in the settlement who clamour for more restriction, for the exercise of power and force (even as Lane used it) to compel obedience to the constitution, however wrong it may be, in order to make all the members, (as well as the few who so clamour) into "good socialists". They even talk of stopping the mate and tobacco, of members who in anything do not act in their (these red hot socialists,) judgment as "good socialists." The chief of this socialistic party is now President, and it will shortly be seen what the result will be. The writer thinks his advent to place and power will hasten the dissolution which has gradually been going on for some time past. Unless indeed the better sense of the community hurls him and socialism at one fell swoop from amongst them. By so doing they will restore to themselves in New Australia the liberties formerly enjoyed in Old Australia. Instead of pooling all the fruits of their labour they will take care to see that that law of nature is observed which ordains the right of a man to himself and to all he produces. It is not capitalism, the socialists make such a bugbear of, that we have to be afraid of, but "privilege only." It is not equality of purse we want, and which the New Australian so vainly strove to bring to pass, but equality of rights only, which requires that no one shall enjoy a right that all don't enjoy equally. This experiment of the New Australians has been a very costly one to the few hundred men and women who broke up their homes and sacrificed all their worldly belongings to give it a trial. But it is a cheap one and a most valuable one to the onlooking student of what is called the social problem, that is now agitating and giving unrest to people all the world over. The many New Australians that have had their faith in socialism so rudely shaken and been forced to leave the settlement and seek refuge in and about Buenos Aires, will be able to bear witness to the truth or otherwise of the statements made in this article. They have turned their back on Old Australia and on New Australia. They should, however, think twice, as the writer is doing, before they turn their backs on South America.

THE FLYING SQUADRON.

ITS MANŒUVRES IN NEW GULF.

FULL PARTICULARS.

The full account and interesting perusal of all the hard work gone through by the flying squadron in the cruise to the south mitigates to a certain extent the bad effects caused by its sudden appearance in the outer Roads, without any order from the Navy Office.

The squadron arrived at Port Madyrn on the 14th of January. The cadets were almost immediately ordered to go through no end of infantry drill, fencing and revolver shooting, besides navigating steam launches, boats, etc. under the direct supervision of superior officers. On the following day all the vessels went through a series of evolutions which severely tested both men and machinery. The cadets were again called on for special service by going through the practice of loading the heavy guns, sighting them and then letting them off: all this was done with the most admirable quickness and precision, shewing the stuff of which Argentina's future Admirals are made. They were, moreover, specially instructed in manning boats in rough water, effect insoundings in different parts of the sea, and under varying circumstances, appreciating distances by the naked eye and by the use of telimetres. All this kind of instruction was kept on with for several days, at the end of which the cadets were given the command of boats and launches.

The men of war were then ordered to launch torpedoes at distances varying from 400 to 800 metres. The vessels were first ordered to go at half speed, and then launch the torpedoes at a target. Every torpedo hit the target.

Target practice at night time was also gone through. The targets were made visible by the electric light thrown on them by the different vessels of the squadron. The cadets then went through a series of signalling at different times during the night. The captain of the 9 de Julio was next day ordered to hold himself in readiness to land the whole of his men and officers at a given signal from the flagship. The order was given at daylight on the 22nd. All the men were in the boats four minutes after the order was given. Provisions, light guns and ammunition were also landed, and the marines were put through a series of evolutions, followed by excellent shooting at targets placed at distances varying from 250 to 800 metres inland. The forces encamped for the night and returned next day, after 24 hours. The officers and crews belonging to the 25 de Mayo, Libertad, Almirante Brown and Patria went through the same kind of drill, sham fights, etc., all of which produced most excellent results. All these exercises were witnessed by Commander Barilari and his staff. The squadron will go through the same manœuvres once it reaches Golfo Nuevo again.

SPORT

The U. I. T.

Oh Heavings! Horrible! Horrible! Out of our promising team of no less than eleven bowlers, not one remains. Unlimited batting material, varied, solid and brilliant, but not a single trundler. Our secretary flew round the clubs yesterday, offering to "swop—not the slightest use. It is the recurrence of the old tale of misfortune that has dogged the U. I. T. from the start. Something invariably turns up at the last moment to dash the fairest hopes to the ground, and we cannot as yet give the names of our eleven through want of, oh——no, we mean through want of the team. It is melancholy to think of it. If things do not improve considerably in the next 24 hours there will be a rehearsal of that stirring chorus from Sonambula, All's Lost, with our umpire conducting. But for the latter, indeed, the U. I. T. would emulate the aerial, commanding situation ascribed to the possum, but whilst he lasts—"hic est petrus."

We hope to give the census of team in our next with full social and genealogical particulars. We hardly expect to do better than make the "hardy sons of the desert" just wish they had never been born, but as for cricket treated as a fine art, elevated to the category of inspired science, a culture, our ideal, that is what we aim with confidence and enthusiasm at shewing to perfection. We have one man with a pose that beats the famous Mr. Tableaux Vivants to fits. And as for general deportment, why even Turveydrop himself would not be in it. And to think of all this wasting for lack of trundlers.

The very pity of it deprives us of further speech.

Retiro A.C. Lomas Academy A.C.

The following players will represent the Retiro A.C. in their match to-day (Saturday) on the Retiro ground, play to commence at 2 p.m.

W. Brown, F. J. Reeves, W. Brunt, J. Jenkins, A. Venn, H. Nicholssn, F. Green, E. Smith, J. Hammond, J. Simmons, J. Holmes, A. N. Other.

To-morrow the great match between Lomas and the B.A.C.C. comes off at Palermo, both sides being as strong as they could possibly have been made, comprising the full southern strength, so that even if it were only to see how the south shapes, the match has a peculiar interest of its own, apart from its intrinsic standing as one of the club matches of the season. The start will be much earlier than usual, being fixed for arrival of 9.30 a.m. train from Central. The Lomas side is, as published a few days ago, as follows:

P. L. G. Bridge, (Capt.), H. B. Anderson, G. S. Anderson, J. O. Anderson, A. Anderson. P. M. Rath, G. Gonsalvez, F. Jacobs, B. Gardom, G. M. C. Comber and C. R. Tupholme.

Mr. A. N. Other, the popular well-known and excessively polite Secretary of the Bedouins, has supplied us with the following genial note, containing our opponent's team.

"The tremendous day is almost upon us and the following representatives of those redoubtable nomads, the Bohemians, will assemble on Sunday 16th inst. to uphold their claim to the supremacy of the Emerald sward in their struggle "a outrance" with the descendants of Milesius.

"Patent breaks and other diabolical contrivances, to the contrary notwithstanding, we expect them to render a good account of themselves and even though it may not amount to a second Clontarf we are certain to have a most elegant battle.

A. J. Penne, C. M. Belton, W. D. Gardom, D. Gibson, A. Venn, T. J. Reeves, D. Duncan, A. E. Clow, W. Buchanan, T. D. Belton and A. N. Other. By the courtesy of the Flores Athletic Club the match will take place on their ground at Caballito on the arrival of the 10.30 train from the Once Station."

Visitors, of which there are sure to be hundreds, may rest assured that the comforts of the inner man will be thoroughly attended to as the Criterion will be to the fore with everything of the best.

The following will represent E. S. Evill's XI v. Rugeroni's XI at Belgrano on Sunday:—

H. Botting, E. S. Evill, J. Croll, Whitworth, Food, Dowson, E. Buxton, Chevob, Allan, McKinnon, A. N. Other. Play to commence at 1 p. m.

THEATRES.

The new comparsa "L'Africana," noticed in our last, will be something new in the Carnival line. It will consist of a coach, superbly decorated, preceded, followed, and escorted by horsemsn, dressed as Moors, Arabs, Egyptians and other denizens of Africa. They will assemble in Villa Catalinas, march through San Martin and Belgrano, and join the corso in the city. They charge themselves with distributing commercial advertisements, applications for the same to be made to Messrs. Fournery and Co. of Cangallo 728.

To-night is the last performance of the Podestá Scotti Company and Biondi. The first named give "Cobarde," and Biondi appears in 'Il Camaleonte' and 'Il Lampo,' in both of which he is first rate.

Frank Brown has sailed from England in the Magdalena, and will make his debut at the San Martin on or about March 1st. He brings a perfectly wonderful company.

Fausto at the Comedia is screamingly funny. It reminds one of the best parodies at home. It is quite up to date and to see Marguerite at the modern sewing machine, instead of the spinning wheel is most laughable. The music is good also, being an excellent parody on the original. They will perform it again during next week. This piece crams the theatre.

LA PLATA.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Feb. 14th.

The Deputies once again failed to-day to meet in sufficient numbers to form a quorum. The last hope is thus swept away that the budget would be voted this week.

The Government was tempted to issue a decree ordering the payment of official salaries for January, as was done during the administration of Adolfo Alsina; but the idea was abandoned as it was decided that such a measure would infringe the privileges of the Legislature.

Carnival festivities will suffer by this want of funds, as two thirds of the city are dependent on official salaries.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Although the luscious languor of the coming Carnival was scented in the ambient yesterday, things in general were lively enough. The whole town was talking about Captain Barilari's squadron, which will sail again for New Gulf tomorrow. The officers are badly disappointed, as they were hoping for shore leave during Carnival. It is a pity that the fever frightened the doctors, as all the manœuvres at New Gulf were most successful. The news from Chile was of the sucking dove order: but one correspondent is frank enough to say that the new protocol is all bosh and a fraud, and will make matters worse than ever.

Our vegetarian friends are not patriotic. They positively exulted yesterday at the fall in the price of Argentine beefsteaks and mutton chops in England. On the other hand, our live stock readers looked rather chop-fallen.

Sub-Prefect Wilson of Port Deseado is in a pickle. He thought that rations of old lion, biscacha, fox etc., would suit his men's stomachs just as well as beef, mutton and other Christian food; but he was mistaken, and the consequence is a terrific tow-row-row.

There will be a diplomatic pow-wow in the Government House this afternoon at 3 p.m., when the new Peruvian Minister, Dr. Rosas, will present his credentials to President Uriburu. Some sanguine people expect hints in the "discursos del estilo" as to the diplomatic imbroglio on the West Coast. We don't.

Last night's wires from Montevideo say that the State Bank iniquity has gone to three D's for the very simple reason that the London men are wise enough to refuse to lend a cent to start it.

Chile's hand again! There seems to be no longer any doubt that Mr. Sylvan Godoy's mission to Rio is to negotiate a neutrality treaty with Paraguay, in case Chile and Argentina come to blows. The famous Madame Lynch's claim for a vast area of land which has become Brazilian by the treaty of peace is mixed up in this little game.

The War Minister issued a decree yesterday "severely roprimanding" Captain Barilari, Commander of the Evolutionary Squadron, for disobeying his instructions to remain at New Gulf to await orders, and ordering him to sail again for that port to-morrow, as we have stated above. The gallant Captain has escaped well. In a European service he would have been cashiered, "right away," as our American cousins put it. The funniest thing of all, incidental to the change from the old regime to the new in both branches of the service, is, that Dr. Quiroga, the only medical man in the squadron who did his duty and protested against the squadron returning here, has been put under arrest like the rest of his colleagues who fright tened Captain Barilari into disobeying orders. Instead of punishment, Dr. Quiroga deserves reward.

The holders of the following numbers in yesterday's Lottery inteud to fully enjoy themselves during Carnival: — $50,000, 12,553; $10,000, 7207; $5000. 10,279; $1000, 11,606, 19,698, 20,757, 1970, 17,697, 17,366, 10,342, 18,163, 18,277, 8825, 18,482; $500, 10,608, 6031, 7085, 17,062, 16,343, 5498, 5446, 8132, 12,919, 14,355, 22,389, 7801. 8297, 19,561, 18,141, 22,750, 13,196, 2570, 6188, 21,434; $200, 10,702, 4776, 7350, 8112, 8276, 2259, 21,643, 17,162, 5953, 10,287, 17,883, 7340, 6091, 13,612, 19,169, 9894, 13,778, 13.978, 18,545, 21,473, 18,320, 21.273, 11,026, 11,328, 18,138, 17,754, 12,747, 11,473, 4919, 18,770, 19,249.

The unwashed and unoccupied marked Avenida Mayo for their own yesterday to watch the preparations for Carnival, which promises to be most tremendously gay. The new moon, however, did not look quite so dry, and had a tear in her eye. It rained heavily all over the South, and we tremble lest "Leo's prediction" prove true and spoil the Saturnalia.

There was a bolt from the blue for Lottery gamblers yesterday. Messrs Aragor and Ballasteros sent round a circular saying that in the "Agentes Reunidos" Lottery has burst up, as their partners have withdrawn the money, and there is none left to pay the prizes. Here's a scandle! The Argentino says the old abuses are still in full blast in the National Lottery, and it will show them up next week. This will add to the enjoyment of Carnival. But who is going to prison? That's the question.

Mr. Henry Fynn, like the kind-hearted Irishman he is, has made the city hospitals a present of 150 £5 shares in the Grand National Railways Co., Limited. Unfortunately, the value of these shares is even more limited than the Company, as they are at such a blooming discount that they only represent about four thousand shinplasters.

With much regret we copy the following paragraph from our esteemed contemporary the Montevideo Times:—"A painful impression has been caused in social and commercial circles by the suicide of Mr. Robert Behrens, book keeper of the important firm of Sievers and Co. of this market. Mr. Behrens had been to Europe to visit his aged mother, and was returning from Hamburg in the Tijuca. This vessel anchored off Punta Brava about 2.30 a.m. on Tuesday, awaiting daylight to enter the port, and it is conjectured that whilst she was anchored Mr. Behrens threw himself overboard, for he was missing when the vessel came into port. In the course of the same afternoon his body, dressed only in night apparel, was washed ashore near Pocitos, and was promptly identified by his friends. There seems little doubt that the case was one of suicide and not accident, for he left some letters bidding farewell to his relatives and business connections. The only reason known for the act is that he was suffering from a painful and chronic disease, which had caused him great pain on the voyage out. He was not married, but his brothers occupy an important social and commercial position here. The funeral took place yesterday and was largely attended."

Miss Kathleen (Katie) Blythman, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Blythman of Cañuelas, was married to Mr. C. W. Bayne, Assistant Traffic Inspector F. C. Sud, on Wednesday, 13th instant. The wedding was celebrated at the house of the bride's father, Rev. Father Alvarez tying the nuptial knot. Mr. L. Farrell officiated as best man. The happy couple leave for England by s.s. Oropesa, and we wish them a pleasant voyage and life-long honeymoon.

How is this? In the long list of public charities that got a share of the Lottery profits last month the only foreign institution favoured was the German Hospital, with $260. Why are the British, French, Italian and Spanish Hospitals left out in the cold, although the weather is decidedly warm? Will their turn come in winter?

Matters are not going pleasantly in England with the fair sex. One of the curious revelations of the recent British census is the extraordinary predominance of the female over the male sex among the grown inhabitants of England. The figures show that the excess of the former over the latter amounts to exactly 899000. Another remarkable thing in connection with this excess of women is the fact that more than five-sixths of the total 899,000 are widows.

Numbers of Montevidean families are expected here this morning for the Carnival racket, as the annual jollification down there promises to be rather seedy, the Italian "comparsas," which are always its chief attraction, having declared off, owing to the critical position of General Baratieri's army in Africa.

An eminent Paris physician has sounded a note of alarm against the type-writer as destructive to the eye sight, owing to the extra work imposed on the eyes by flitting from letter to letter, This can be easily understood. Those who work long over a type-writer should be able to say whether it pains the sight more than hand-writing.

The cablegrams yesterday brought some explanation of Emperor William's telegram to Uncle Paul. It now turns out that the real Simon Pures in the affair were nine wealthy Germans settled in the Transvaal, who supplied Dr. Jameson with money for the raid. Now, avuncular Paul, what are you going to do with these Teutons?

Poor Martinez Campos is said to be so heart-broken at the people turning against him for his failure in Cuba that he intends to shake the dust of his native land from his top-boots and retire to Germany to end his days in peace. Why the dickens did he not make batter use of his 100,000 men?

The following description of the Madagascar police reminds us strongly of our old friend the "Sereno" of 25 years ago here. Whatever their police may be, their administration of justice is admirable, and is based on "le Code Lynch," which, in its way, is as fine as the Code Napoleon:—"Probably the sleepiest policemen in the world are those of Madagascar. At Antananarivo, the capital, there is little evidence of the force by day, for its members are all peacefully wrapped in slumber. At night, too, the guardian of property is seldom to be seen, and that he is actually guarding is only to be told by the half-hourly cry that is sent up to Police Post No. 1 alongside the royal palace.

"Watchman, what of the night?"

"We are wide awake, keeping a sharp look-out, and all's well." Antananarivo has no lamps and no streets. It is simply a great collection of houses tumbled together. There is a big force of night police, known as the "watch" which gathers itself together into groups, and choosing snug corners, wrapping themselves in straw mats, they drop into long and profound slumber. One member of each group remains awake to respond to the half hourly call from the palace. There is no criminal code of any account, and when a man is caught in the act of stealing, the populace are apt to ignore the police and surround him and stone him to death. The Madagascans have no "swear words" in their language, and when their feelings are overwrought against a man, the only thing they can do is to execute summary vengeance upon him."

Conscience has fine material for making cowards in the powers that be at Montevideo at present. The other night the United States squadron was at rocket practice in the river, and the police and Government House people got a stunning fright, believing for a short time that it was a landing of revolutionists. This goes to show that they are expecting a bobbery in the patriotic line.

We note amongst the letters detained in the General Post Office for contravention of the law (enclosing money or valuables) one addressed to "Mr. N. Reddy, P.O. Achill, Co. Mayo, Ireland."

Engineer Carlos Calastreme, á Chascomús man, has been named Engineer in Chief of the Naval Arsenal at the Tigre. It is an excellent appointment. Mr. C. practised his profession for fifteen years in England, rather a good school, and has been Sub-Director of the Sola Works on the Southern Railway for over a year past. In Glasgow also Mr. Calastreme made his mark as a naval architect. He is the right man in the right place at the Tigre, and speaks English with a Gladstonian accent.

"Will you keep an eye on my horse, my lad, while I step in and get a drink?" "Yes, sir." The stranger on his return from getting his drink found his horse gone, and exclaimed—"Where is my horse boy? "He's runned away, sir," "Didn't I tell you to take care of him, you young scamp?" "No—you tell'd me to keep my eye on him, and I did till he was clean out of sight."

Here's a hint for estancieros and quinta owners who may happen to dislike death with their boots on from a flash of lightning, To protect the houses of the peasants, which are frequently struck by lightning, the Russian Government has recommended that the peasantry be encouraged to plant white poplar trees around their dwellings, to act as lightning rods. This suggestion arose out of some investigations concerning the liability to lightning stroke of certain species of trees, made by a Russian electrician and the Government Forest Inspector. They spent 100 days in the great forests near Moscow, and of the 597 trees that during that time were struck by lightning, they found 302 were white poplar, notwithstanding the fact that that species is comparatively rare.

Half our Hungarian subscribers here are going home for the stupendous Millenial Festival of their venerable country to open at Budapesth on May 2nd next and wind up on September 27th. The "piece de resistance" of this wonderful fete will be the Millenial Exhibition, which will cover an area of 500,000 square metres and consist of 169 constructions and pavilions erected at a total cost (including private expenses) of 10,000,000 Fls. This Exhibition istivided into two sections, viz: I. the Historical Section and 2'the section of Modern Times. The number of Congresses, games, shows etc. is legion, but the Historical Pageant will take the cake. Several Municipal Bodies have already promised their concurrence, while scores of noble men and women, bearers of historical names, have declared their readiness to take part at their own cost. All the costumes and fashions of all the races and social classes who have inhabited the country, during ten centuries, will pass before the eyes in this beautiful Cortege. If any of our Hungarian renders or others wish for pamphlets with full details, we can oblige them.

Ultimo Testimonio recibido

Señores Agar, Cross y Cia., Buenos Aires
Muy Señores mios

Con haber introducido en esta colonia su máquina ratormada MacCormick y á mas que en el dia de la fecha para que sea mas completa con la nueva aplicación á la misma máquina del Cutter Bar Frames, he recibido un perjuicio de regular consideracion y un beneficio que supera pero grandemente al perjuicio. Asi se lo manifesté verbalmente á su representante Sr. Jorge Winter. El perjuicio es que tengo muchas máquinas, segadoras de alfalfa y no sé que haré de ellas porque mis chacareros no quieren mas que MacCormick, y el beneficio es que teniendo alfalfares "sembrados espresamente con muchos graminios" todavia no habia encontrado máquina las cortara tan perfectamente como estas. Como en el año proximo cortaré mas de 2000 hectareas de alfalfa semilla y es allí donde se ven las buenas máquinas, les pediré algunas mas, segun venga el corte semilla, este año necesitaré dos. En un concurso, quisiera ver como se puede probar que haya maquina que supere á esta.

ON 'CHANGE.

Friday, February 14th 1896.
Gold Premium.

FIRST RING 214.00%
SECOND RING..... 213.60%

A bullish blast swept through the gold market this morning in spite of all the good news that was trumpeted in the hall. The morning broke with the most satisfactory assurances from the West Coast; private and official messages confirmed the news that a new treaty is on the "tapis," that the Puna de Atacama is to be given up to Argentina, that the "Hito" of San Francisco is to be removed immediately, that all the difficulties in the demarcation in Patagonia will be squared, in fact—the new treaty or protocal is to effectually settle all questions in the past, present, and future. The news produced a most excellent impression on 'Change, but did not deter callous speculators from covering and raking in their margins—a process that put gold up a few points in the morning. Thus in the midst of an intensely bearish atmosphere gold rose.

On the heels of all the good news from Chile came the tidings of another shipment of sovereigns from London to B. Ayres. Thus, there must be now nearly half a million sterling afloat en route for the Plate, another powerful factor in the bearish speculation. The bears attach no importance to to-day's sharp rise in the premium, as they consider the rally the result of covering operations; once this ceases, they argue, gold must plunge downwards again.

The gold speculation was very active at the first ring and a million dollars changin hands in a feverish and excited market. Business for cash embraced half a million; the premium opened at 212.70%, fell sharply to 212%, then began to rise steadily, touched top at 214.50%, and closed at 214%. A quarter of a million was sold for the end of the month; the premium opened at 215.50%, rose to 217.50%, and closed at 216.50%—say 2½ points contango for the fortnight. Two hundred thousand dollars were sold for to-morow—fortnightly settlement—rates were the same as for cash. Sixty thousand dollars were sold for the end of next week, premium closing at 215%. Business for March always continues difficult; one hundred thousand dollars were sold; the premium opened at 218%, rose steadily, and closed at 220—say six points contango for the six weeks—rather inviting. No wonder there is a certain squeeze in the money market. Small amounts of gold were also sold for end of April at 221% and for end of May at 223.50% premium, nominal.

The outside market watches with wonder and amazement the antics of the gold premium. The enthusiasm of the bears is admirable and is becoming contagious, spreading as it does with improvement of foreign relations, shipments of gold from Europe, and a rise in the price-level of our principal staples of produce. However, even in the midst of enthusiastic bearish circles there is a wholesome dread of the Financial Sphinx who holds the market in the hollow of his big financial clutches. At any moment he can upset the speculative boat, and in all probability he will simply annihilate the bears the moment they get the premium down to 200—that's the Rubicon—if crossed, the Budget would be endangered, and this the Sphnix will not tolerate.

In stocks and shares the main feature was the activity in National Cedulas F, about three hundred thousand changing hands at 80.50 to 80. Catalinas shares raised their head again above 4. La Plata Cedulas advanced gently to 17.90, but closed at 17.70.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the first ring to-day:—

$ 456,000 for cash at 312.70-312-50-312-313-313.50-30-313-313.50-314-313.70-80-314-314.20-50--314--313.70-80-314-313.80-314-314-30-314-314.20-10-313.80-314--314.20-314.

There was a very brisk movement in exchange circles to-day and a very large amount of business was passed. Several banks entered the field and took very freely, but the market as it closed showed no signs of weakeness; it stood the brunt well and is able to face even more heavy aking. The rates closed at:—

48 5/16-⅝d. on London.
5.09-5.09 ½ frcs. on France.
5.10 ⅞-5.11 frcs. on Belgium.
4.13 ⅛-4.14 mks. en Germany.

Thé impending spell of Carnival feast-days brought the banks into the exchange market to-day. At the banks the demand for paper money continues sharp. Paper discounts are unaltered at 8% ; gold quite nominal at 7%.

Telegrams from London this morning announced that Argentine Funding Bonds have again risen to 79 and that 112,000 sovereigns were shipped yesterday to the Plate.

Telegrams from Rio Janeiro to-day quoted exchange on London weak as ever at 9 1/32d.

Things down La Plata way are insufferably dull, though in Government circles the failure of the Senate to form a quorum is raising Cain, as the Province is at present running without a budget, pretty much the same as a train without fuel, and may come to a standstill at any moment. This inconsiderate manner of procedure on the part of the Senior Chamber is of course promptly stamped down to opposition tactics, especially as it is the Radicals who have failed to occupy their places. The Governor is fortunately too level-headed to go to extremes, otherwise we might have the strain resulting in a sort of political emeute, of the kind suggested so broadly by the Land League. In all probability, however, there is much exaggeration and over colour in the view taken by the official adherents; the approach of Carnival will have undoubtedly drawn some of the Senators to their estancias until Saturnalia is passed, when they will return to their posts and help the Government to keep the machine going.

With regard to the figures published in our last issue of our trade relations with Germany taken from the reliable source of the Argentine consulate's (Germany) report to the Finance Office, we now supplement them with the following remarks anent cereals and meat supply, emigration, etc., from the same source. The report says that up to year 1895 Argentina occupied first rank as wheat supplier to the Empire, having now given place to Russia, which stands first, due to the great exertions made to monopolise the market, so that in order of importance in this respect Germany drew from:

	Tons wheat. Jan.-Sep. '95.
Russia	498,044
Argentina	217,412
United States	163,093
Various	112,701
Total supply	991,256

Thus Russia now supplies 50 % of the total wheat imported, and if Argentina ever hopes to gain the supremacy, the question of freight will have to be very thoroughly sifted and settled. As regards meat supplies from America they are practically nil, due to the prohibitive regulations imposed subsequent to the importation, some time ago, of diseased animals from North America, and this state of affairs has manifested itself in advance of prices, which have gone up 15 % since 1893. Touching emigration, the report says that Dr. Wiegand, a director of the North German Lloyd line of steamers, having travelled through the States, Canada, Brazil, Chile and many other countries, considers Argentina the country par excellence for emigrants, from its climate, soil, etc., this being set forth in a pamphlet he wrote on the subject, and, lastly, the Cologne Gazette points out that it is the palpable interest of the Imperial Government to maintain and even extend its commercial relations with Argentina, in spite of the high tariff ruling in latter country on foreign production, which has a detrimental effect on international trade and is an obstacle to the growth of German exportation.

There is something positive at last being done about the drainage in the South of the Province—$20.000 handed over to help the surveys along and nomination of Mr. Nystromer as Chief engineer. This gentleman is well known from a long connection with the City improvement Works. Messrs. Serrano and Mayo have been named accountants to the Drainage Commission.

Things up country were abnormally quiet yesterday, not even the ripple of a breeze in advices. In Tucuman they are putting the finishing touches to the export ring which has enticed Salta and the Chaco to chime in, so that this business looks at last on a practical footing. Governor Cordoba is reported to be preparing his valise for a trip to the metropolis to receive the million shinplasters for the Water-works voted by Congress. There is nothing beyond this doing, if we except preparations for the elections, which are in full swing all round.

The balance-sheet and report of the Hipodromo Nacional was handed round to-day, but contains nothing of importance beyond the declaration of the board that the Company is now on a satisfactory footing as shewn by a profit of $49,876 out of which a dividend of $5 per shares is recommended, carrying forward $21,876 as a sort of contingent fund. Nothing is said about the closing of the Hippodrome, but some important changes in the statutes are foreshadowed.

There was a lively business in gold at the second ring, over six hundred thousand gold dollars changing hands. Business for delivery to-morrow embraced four hundred thousand dollars: the premium opened at 214 %, rose to 214.80 %, fell, and closed at 213.60 %. One hundred thousand dollars were sold for the end of the month: the premium opened at 217 %, rose to 217 ½ %, fell to 216 %, and closed at 216.30. The premium for end of March closed at 219 ½ %. To-morrow's speculation promises to be very active, and the settlement will be of importance. Stocks and shares were dull.

The following is a summary of the operations effected to-day at the second ring:—

The Finance Minister has accepted the tender of the "Sociedad Carbonifera del Puerto" to supply 3,000 tons of Cardiff coal and fifty of Smith's coal to the Movimiento office at $5.60 gold per thousand kilos.

The Government has named Don Mauricio Roca to the Board of the Bank of the Nation, to replace Dr. Miguel Cané.

The note circulation sticks at the same old figure. There is no cremation of shinplasters now as in Dr. Terry's time in the Finance Office. The Caja de Conversion balance-sheet to January 31st last shows $296,743,018 (How scrupulous about the 18 cents ! !) in circulation.

The Finance Minister has ordered payment to the Rentas Office of $12.050, to be devoted to establishing an iron and bronze smelting shed for the "Movimiento" office of the port.

SALES AND AUCTIONS.

A very important sale of land was finished off at Escribano Quiroga's office to-day, when the title-deeds were signed which made Mr. Luis Urdaniz the owner of a splendid stretch of camp in San Luis, Department of Pedernera, 36th degree, the property being known as that of Messrs A. Cambaceres and J. Araoz. Mr. Urdaniz paid $150,000 for it, and he was much congratulated on his purchase, a splendid estate both for extent and quality of the land.

In the marts business was confined to Tattersalls, where the estancieros crowded in for the sale of a splendid batch of 100 young Lincoln rams imported by Mr. Ewart, which went off as follows:—

PRODUCE MARKETS.

With a stock of 15 millions of kilos of wool in our markets, we can well afford to stop and admire the "pilas", the stock goes very near beating the record this year. In past season at this time there were 16 millions, but the advantage we have to-day is that the whole bulk of the wool is concentrated in one market, viz: the Central. The wonder is that with combed wool nearly at 4.50 francs in Antwerp, that we are not able to despatch our parcels faster. North advices agree that there is very little wool left outside, still from other sources we learn that there are still 40,000,000 kilos, the figures may be a little far fetched but nevertheless we are well aware that in several districts the clip has not yet arrived in our markets.

Telegrams from Europe announce a very firm wool market. The Germans who for some time have been speculating for a fall have now seen their mistake. In the mean time, whilst the Germans were following their own tactics, the French artistas cornered the market, buying up all available parcels at low prices. When business was dull the French took their advantage, they bought up everything right and left; to-day, the Germans who have to comply with their contracts find themselves in a rather stiff corner.

In our own markets we find a great difference between buyers and sellers. "Artistas" who tried to do business this morning found a great obstacle when the sellers asked 80 cents more than yesterday rates. The arrivals are considerable and are far ahead of the sales. The total amount sold to-day did not pass 600,000 kilos, prices were firm and with great competion between the French and German "artistas."

The cereal markets continue as firm as ever, exporters pick up every available lot that they chance to meet with. In wheat they are not able to compete with the local 'consumo,' which buys up all parcels as fast as they arrive. The telegrams from Europe report a fall in prices and demand, but when one draws out his calculation one can easily see that parcels sold at 25 shillings always mean money in the pocket. Special French wheat is selling here at 8 and Barletta at 8.20 and 8.25. Some 15,000 bags were sold at the latter price this morning.

The export is still deeply engaged with maize. In the Once the current rates were from 3 to 3.60, in the Grand Dock 3.70 and in the Riachuelo 3.65 was paid for the 100 kilos.

Linseed is very "flojo" in our markets, 9.20 and 9.80 being the highest prices; in Europe the article is sold at 30 shillings and three pence, evidently the crop must have a bad name. This time last year the business in linseed led the markets, to-day we see that it only holds a secondary position.

The following is the decree issued by the Santa Fé Government for the distribution of wheat amongst the colonies:—

Santa Fé 11st.

Art. 1.—The demand for wheat for sowing purposes will have to pass into the special committee which will distribute the grain according to the latest decree.

Art. 2.—The petition, beyond having the signature of the colonist, must also present a certain guarantee, without this it is prohibited to give any grain.

Art. 3.—The persons who sign the guarantees must be well known and have a known position.

Art. 4.—As soon as the above mentioned details are complied with the wheat shall be delivered in the nearest station or port to the colony.

Art. 5.—The payments are to be made during January and February 1896, at a place which will be named by the Government. All expenses incurred go to the colonists.

Art. 6.—The Committee is hereby authorized to pay out the necessary sums to meet the demands of the colonists etc. according to the law of the 10th February.

Art. 7.—To be published througout the Province.

Leiva.
P. S. Alcacer

The activity of the past days has left Rosario for the moment. The telegram from Europe reporting a fall in cereals has put exporters on the look out, they offer prices to-day which do not correspond with those paid the other day. This difference has caused a certain dullness in operating circles. Exporters offer as highest price 7.15 for wheat, whereas consignatarios hold out for 7.20 and 7.25. The colonists, taking their views from the offensive position of buyers and sellers, have made up their mind not to enter into any contract for some days. They seem to think that the gold premium and the Europeans markets will have in that space sufficient time to settle down! The sales yesterday barely reached 550 tons at prices from 7.05 to 7.25, for middling classes 6.80 and 7 was paid.

Maize is still in the back ground. We have often asked the explanation of this, but can't find anyone who can give us a lucid idea on the subject. In Buenos Aires it is picked up as fast as it arrives, and still here business in this article is very reduced. A parcel of 2,500 bags of yellow maize found a buyer yesterday at 3.15. If the daily sales only reach a few thousand bags, we pity the owners. Flour has taken it into its head to lead the market, a decided improvement in both demand and prices has been noticed in the latter days.

The lests said about linseed the better. This article has stuck in a mire, and will take a great shove to get it out again. Every day there is violent discussion on the parcels that arrive, exporters refusing to accept them owing to the bad quality, colonists insisting that they should be received due to contracts already signed. The market closed at 9.70 and 9.90.

Owing to the millers having sufficient stock on hand, operations in wheat in Montevideo have suffered a little. Prices are also somewhat slacker, having come down 2 cents. The heavy arrivals are beginning to tell on transactions. The larger the assortment the smaller the competition; consignatarios, however, seem to believe that the fall is only momentary and that in a few days a reaction will occur. Maize holds its old place, exporters buying up at 95 cents and at a dollar. The sales were so small that they are not worthy of notice.

Some large sales in live-stock have been reported. Mr. C. Alcoria sold 600 cows at $7 and 2,000 steers at 11 to the Fray Bentos saladero. The same firm has bought steers from Messrs. Marion and Petit, of Arroyo Negro, at 11 dollars. Another saladero from Arroyo Negro bought 800 steers from Messrs. Minigot and Pugas at $12, this being the highest price paid for some time.

Operations in wool have never been so active as to-day; in all the barracas business was going on in a very brisk style. If the sales continue on the same scale as to-day during this month, it will soon clear out the wool on hand. The following was sold in the barracas:—800 bales of wool middling quality at a reserved price, 100 do at 3.00, from 6000 to 7,000 bundles at 2.40 and 2.70, 10,000 kilos from Carmelo at 2.35 and 40,000 do from various districts ot 2.40 and 2.50 per 10½ kilos, besides this some 63,000 kilos were sold in the station at prices varying from 2.25 to 2.50.

RIVER STEAMERS.

The Venus and Ladario are expected from Montevideo, and the Comercio from Salto and intermediate ports to-morrow.

The Venus will leave to-morrow for Montevideo.

GENERAL.

Messrs Baccaro and Moresco, proprietors of the ss. Litoral and Madona del Carmen, running to Patagones, have resolved to lower their tariffs by 50%. The agents here are Messrs Carbone, Ibañez and Sarsoti.

The Spanish gun-boat Temerario from Montevideo entered to day No 3 dock.

The ss. Arara grounded at day-break in the Channel.

The R. M. S. Clyde should to-morrow enter La Plata port with 63 passengers on board. Her mails come up to-night by the Venus and should be delivered to-morrow morning before mid-day.

The following steamers are expected here to-morrow :—Calabro from Genoa, Hurona from Liverpool and Urmston Grange from Newzealand.

Bills of health were to-day issued to the Heliades and Unione for Liverpool and Ladario for Corumbá.

The Straits of Magellan should to-morrow leave the Madero port for Rio, and also the Flackland for Antwerp.

The Tasso shifted to-day from No 2 dock to the "embarcadero" to take in live-stock

An exceptionally nice lot of beeves were to-day being shipped on board the Zeno. Though small they were had nice round fat carcases just the animals for the London market.

The despatch-boat Gaviota conveyed to-day under arrest to the island of Martin Garcia the 6 naval surgeons attached to the squadron of manœuvres.

No fresh case of sickness was reported to-day on board the vessels lying in the roads; nor was there any notable change in the condition of the patients in the floating hospital.

The German Lloyd steamer Mark leaves to-day from Southampton with 50 first-class passengers, en route for this port.

The tape of the Inspector in La Plata is playing him nasty tricks. The ss. Besrataél when first measured gave him space for 301 steers, yesterday 4 less were forthcoming according to this impish "cincta" and to-day a further reduction of nine was the result of the third trial. The Inspection office should invest in a new tape without loss of time. Considerable annoyance to the shipper was also caused to-day by a deadlock produced by certain red-tape regulations regarding the measurement of the Linlithgow.

The usual permit was taken out in B. Ayres for the timber put on board for the fittings. There were, however, some old fittings already on board and when the carpenter had finished his task, about ¼ a cart load of laths etc. were left over for removal on shore. Some 30 bales of hay had also been scattered through the pens ready to be strewn as bedding. The vessel was yesterday ready for inspection. To-day the inspector appeared; but absolutely refused to take any measurement until both the timber and hay had been removed. The first it was impossible to land without another custom-house permit, and the second it was absurd to put on shore since it would immediateiy be wanted as soon as the inspection had been concluded. Who is to blame for the vexations delay caused by the refusal on the part of the inspector to measure the ship, we are not prepared to say; but the loss both to shipper and steamship agent might surely have been avoided by a little display of common sense on the part of the authorities. It is these pretty vexations which go far to filling the cup of woe now being drunk by exporters and certainly lend but little encouragement to the development of an industry already in a sufficiently critical state.

The export of live-stock may for this year be considered practically over. Low prices in England, an extraordinary hi_h rate of insurance—from 10 to 12½—, distrust of estancieros who obstinately refuse to believe that $80 per steers is the outside price than can be paid for good beeves for exportation—all combine to put a stop to the trade. The business must consequently be left to right itself next spring when "invernadores" will probably have learnt their lesson and be glad to thankfully accept the prices which to-day they scorn. We have every faith in the business, but it is one which must first be put on a proper commercial footing—a state of affairs which does not exist to-day.

To-day's Export's.
